

Brian Kelly Bio

Brian Kelly is a Patient Advocate volunteer for the Corinne Sikora Wellness Center dedicated to helping cancer patients and families manage their illness and navigate the health care system.

Brian has more than 40 years' experience helping health systems operate more efficiently. As a senior vice president, he helped grow his company – MedAssets, from 60 employees to over 3,000 employees.

Brian holds a Master's Degree in Health Care Policy, Planning, and Administration from New York University. He has achieved certification from the Patient Advocate Certification Board and is a certified Ombudsman volunteer with the Pennsylvania Department of Long Term Care.

Brian and his wife – Suzanne, have lived in Bucks County for more than 30 years. Their 4 grown children and 11 grandchildren keep them active. In his free time, Brian can be seen walking his 13 year old rescue dog – Petty, or wandering local golf courses searching for errant tee-shots.
